

Bariatric In-Situ Hammock Sling Short Tucks

M921527

- Short tucks to back section to allow more fullness to main body of the sling
- Full supportive sling
- Full leg paddles for femur support with an easy glide fabric to both sides for ease of application
- Additional inner leg pick up to help facilitate optimum pick up positions
- Hip straps provided for additional support
- Suitable to be left in place for extended periods subject to risk assessment
- Manufactured in Silva-Spacer with COOLMAX® and COOLMAX freshFX® EcoMade
- Wash temp 95°C / 203°F
- Tumble dry on a low heat (max 50°C)

Product Codes and Specifications:

|                                                                                     |           |                                                         |                   |              |              |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|--------------|--------------|
|  |           | Silva-Spacer with COOLMAX® and COOLMAX freshFX® EcoMade |                   |              |              |
|                                                                                     |           | A                                                       | B                 | C            | D            |
| 1                                                                                   | M921527-1 | 31½ - 43¼" (80 - 110cm)                                 | up to 63" (160cm) | 40½" (109cm) | 61¼" (155cm) |
| 2                                                                                   | M921527-2 | 47¼ - 55" (120 - 140cm)                                 | up to 63" (160cm) | 51¼" (150cm) | 61¼" (155cm) |

